Welcome

Welcome to North Yorkshire County Council's adult learning and skills service autumn 2012 prospectus for the Selby area.

Our aim is to provide a wide range of high quality part time courses and workshops that all adults can enjoy and to make their learning experience productive and fulfilling.

Many of the courses we offer support people who are not currently in work to develop their employment skills and we also work with employers to design bespoke training packages.

Our experienced staff can help you to choose a course that is right for you and extra support may be available if you need it.

Courses are free if you receive certain benefits or you are currently unemployed and we have frozen our course fees for the second year in a row to help make learning affordable for everyone. Family learning and English and maths courses are also free.

As well as our autumn prospectus you can also find information about adult learning courses in our spring and summer editions, which will be available in libraries, children's centres and other community venues throughout the year. You can also find our latest prospectus, information about taster classes and search for courses online at www.northyorks.gov.uk/adultlearning

We hope this prospectus inspires you to try something new and that you find the courses on offer interesting and exciting. Many learners find the experience life and career changing, and we will do our best to support you in achieving your goals.

Linda Burgon, Principal officer

Choosing an adult learning course

You can find information about courses on offer near you this autumn starting from page 12. Details include course fees, where and when the course will be happening and how many weeks it lasts for. You can also find out more about courses on offer:

- using our online course finder at www.northyorks.gov.uk/coursefinder;
- at an enrolment session listed on page 9; or
- by contacting your local area office (see back cover for details).

As well as what's going on in Selby, there are over 900 adult learning courses available across the County. Details of courses starting next spring will be available at the end of November.

! Look out for free courses on the tables starting from page 12. You can also find out about free courses by contacting the adult learning office in your local area (see back cover for details).

Need some extra help?

If you'd like to talk through your learning options, or would like some help choosing the right course for you, a learning and skills adviser can help you get the best out of adult learning opportunities.

Our learning and skills advisers provide specialist support and can give advice on funding and childcare. They can also recommend courses to help with writing CVs, applying for jobs and interview techniques.

Contact the adult learning office in your local area to speak to a learning and skills adviser (see back cover for details).

Additional learning support

Most of our courses are accessible to people with specific learning needs. In many cases additional support can be provided at no cost to the learner to make sure they are able to participate. This could be by providing specific equipment and/or help from staff.

Please let us know if you have a disability and/or difficulty by recording this on the enrolment form or by contacting the adult learning office in your local area (see back cover for details).

English and maths skills

Free

Our free programmes cover a range of interesting topics to help you with your English and maths skills. If you do not already have an English and maths qualification at Level 2, we can help you improve your skills for work and gain a qualification. Improving your English and maths will benefit you in a wide range of everyday situations and will help to boost your confidence, job prospects and allow you to pursue your ambitions. Learners will work towards a nationally recognised qualification.

For more information about these programmes contact your local area office (see back cover for details).

If you know someone who would benefit from an English or maths course, you can contact us to discuss how we might be able to help them.

Family learning

Free

You can make a real impact on how your child gets on at school by being confident and capable of supporting their learning and development. Anyone with responsibility for a child, such as mums, dads, grandparents and carers, without a Level 2 English or maths qualification is welcome to attend family learning courses.

Family learning courses include learning together with your child or grandchild. They provide opportunities for you to improve your own skills, discover what children learn about at school and try fun activities that you can do together on the course and at home.

Family learning courses:

- vary from two-hour family fun workshops to 60-hour programmes;
- can give you the chance to work towards a nationally recognised qualification in English or maths;
- sometimes offer free childcare provision; and
- are available in different community venues, such as schools, children's centres and community centres.

For more information about family learning courses contact your local area office (see back cover for details).

Apprenticeships

Apprenticeships are an excellent way of gaining qualifications and workplace experience. As an employee, you can earn as you learn and gain practical skills from the workplace. We offer apprenticeship programmes in:

- hospitality and catering;
- health and social care;
- supporting teaching and learning in schools;

- children's workforce development;
- business administration; and
- customer service.

While you are on an apprenticeship, your employer pays you a salary and supports you during your training. Most of the training is 'on the job' within the workplace, however, the rest can be provided by the adult learning and skills service.

For more information about apprenticeships contact your local area office (see back cover for details).

English for speakers of other languages (ESOL)

If you do not speak English as a first language, we have conversational ESOL courses to help you gain confidence, plus a wide range of ESOL courses at different levels to help you:

- improve your speaking and listening;
- improve your reading and writing;
- develop your job-seeking skills;
- gain confidence;
- gain a qualification; and
- develop skills to help you with citizenship.

For more information about ESOL courses contact your local area office (see back cover for details).

If you know someone who would benefit from an ESOL course, you can contact us to discuss how we might be able to help them.

Registration and payment

You can join and pay for an adult learning course:

- online;
- by telephone; or
- by calling into your local area office.

Online

You can access more detailed information about your course online. For a quick and convenient way to book and pay, go to www.northyorks.gov.uk/adultlearning

Select the 'course finder' option and follow the simple instructions on screen.

You will receive an electronic confirmation and receipt of your payment.

Online booking isn't available for all courses and for certain courses you will need to contact your local area office (see back cover for details).

By telephone

If you would like to talk to someone about courses or discuss your needs, please contact your local area office between 8.30am and 5pm Monday to Thursday and 8.30am to 4.30pm on Friday. You can also pay for a course over the phone with your debit or credit card.

Call into your local area office

From 2nd July 2012 you can call into the Selby area office between 10am and 3pm on weekdays to join and pay for an adult learning course.

Course fees and eligibility

Accredited course fees

Some of our accredited courses are free provided you meet residency and eligibility requirements and:

- are 16 – 24 years old on 31st August 2012;
- receive Job Seekers Allowance (JSA);
- receive Employment Support Allowance Work Related Activity Group (ESA WRAG);
- do not have a GCSE at grade C or above in English or maths and wish to take either of these courses; or
- if you are taking improve your English; improve your maths or family learning courses.

Learning for leisure course fees

The fee for our learning for leisure courses will be a set price of £10 for eligible learners who are:

- over 60 years old and receiving pension guarantee credit;
- receiving Job Seekers Allowance (JSA);
- receiving Employment Support Allowance (ESA);
- unemployed and receiving Income Support, Council Tax Credit, Pension Credit, Housing Benefit, contribution based ESA or Working Tax Credit (and have a household income of less than £15,276 per annum).

Some of these courses may have additional costs for materials, please ask when enrolling.

You must provide proof of your eligibility at enrolment. Provided you meet eligibility criteria, standard fees, concessions and discounts apply.

If you do not meet the eligibility criteria listed above, the standard course, accreditation and materials fees will apply. Funding for all adult learning courses comes from the Skills Funding Agency.

For more information about course fees and eligibility contact your local area office (see back cover for details).

Frequently asked questions

Q. I have always found learning difficult. Will I get any help?
A. Your adviser will be able to support you throughout your programme. Additional support may be provided through specific equipment, dyslexia assessments and/or additional staff. Please let us know if you have learning difficulties and/or disabilities when you enrol.

Q. If I cannot afford to pay for my course is there any help available?
A. We may be able to offer financial help with course and exam fees, childcare costs, equipment or specific resources and travel costs. Your adviser can tell you more about financial support available. For further details please contact the area office (see back cover for details).

Q. Will I need to pay any exam fees?
A. If you are enrolling onto a course with an examination you are required to pay the accreditation/exam fee at the time of enrolment.

Q. Can I get a refund if I change my mind?
A. If a course is cancelled, for example if there are insufficient enrolments, refunds will be given. Learners who withdraw from a course will not be entitled to a refund other than in exceptional circumstances. In these cases a £10 administration fee will be charged.

Next steps

You can find out more about courses on offer across the county using our online course finder at www.northyorks.gov.uk/coursefinder, at an enrolment session or by contacting your local area office (see back cover for details).
