No more shhh!

You're never too young to join the Library and Information Service.

And please don't worry that your children will be too noisy – Library and Information Centres are not the hushed places that they used to be!

Access for everyone

We offer:

- Accessible buildings and mobiles
- A Home Library and Information Service
- Books on cassette and CD
- Large Print books
- Scooter-height PC tables
- Large-screen monitors
- Specially adapted software, keyboards and mice.

Other Services

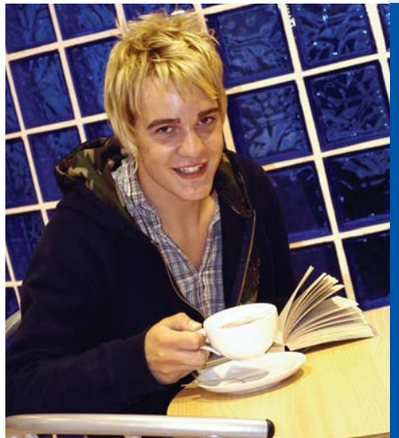
Library and Information Centres work with other organisations to provide access to a variety of extra services, including:

- Tourist Information
- Registrars
- District Councils
- Police
- Buisness Link

We also offer:

- Meeting rooms for hire
- Café facilities
- Photocopying and Fax services
- Reading Groups

Ask locally for details of services provided



North Yorkshire County Council

How to find us

With a network of libraries and a mobile library service, you're never too far from a North Yorkshire County Council Library and Information Centre.

Telephone our Headquarters on 01609 533800 to find your nearest centre.
Visit our website at:
www.northyorks.gov.uk/libraries

E-mail us at: libraries@northyorks.gov.uk

North Yorkshire County Council
Library and Information Service,
21 Grammar School Lane,
Northallerton DL6 1DF

Tel: 01609 533800
E-mail: libraries@northyorks.gov.uk

If you would like this information in another language or format such as Braille, large print or audio, please ask us. ?

Designed and produced by County Print P39358J 2.09

North Yorkshire County Council

Your Library and Information Centre

Your first choice for

- Books
- Films
- Music
- Maps and Guides
- Information
- Local History
- Newspapers
- Internet Access

Adult and Community Services

Where do I start?

Library and Information Centres offer a huge range of services to the people who live, work and study in North Yorkshire. They are the key access point for information, advice and learning.

If you want to borrow items or use our computers you will need to become a member. It's quick, easy and it's absolutely free.

Once you join you will be able to borrow books free of charge. CDs, DVDs and Console Games can be borrowed for a small fee after proof of identity with your name and address.

A catalogue of all items in County stock is available in every Library and Information Centre and on the internet.

Reservations

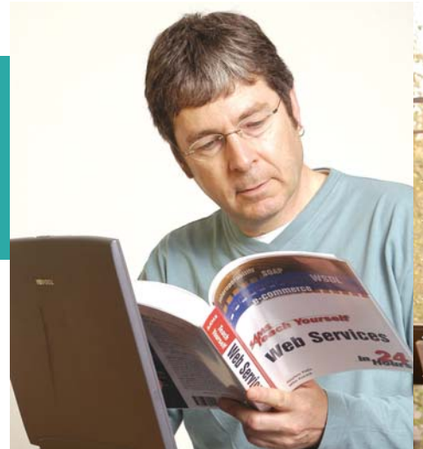
You can request items from any Library and Information Centre in North Yorkshire. There is a small charge for adults to request books. Audio-visual requests and children's requests for children's books are free.

If you need more specialised books or articles, we can arrange to borrow them from outside the County. There is an additional charge for this service.

Getting Connected

All Library and Information Centres provide access to computers via the 'People's Network'. You can expect to find:

- High speed Internet access
- Word processing and desktop publishing facilities
- Scanners
- High quality colour printing
- CD re-writers



Your One-Stop Information Shop

Whatever you want to know your library can help.

All centres have a range of:

- Encyclopaedias and dictionaries
- Guides and leaflets
- On-line resources
- Local community information
- Council information

Can't find what you need? Just ask.

Our experienced staff will be happy to help. If they can't find the information, they will be able to point you in the right direction.