

Be Safe Think Safe

The information in this pack has been produced on behalf of the North Yorkshire Learning Disability Partnership Board and has been supported by the North Yorkshire Adult Safeguarding Board.

There is information that can be used by people with learning disabilities with or without support.

There is also guidance for staff and volunteers on Internet Safety, good practice and professional conduct in relation to the use of the Internet.

Managers might also find the information useful for the induction of staff and volunteers.

If you have any comments relating to the information in this pack please contact Frits Rab or Sue Lear at the Mencap Centre or any member of the North Yorkshire Learning Disability Partnership Board.

September 2012

Delivery Programme to date:

Ian Margerison from Inclusion North will be working with the North Yorkshire Learning Disability Partnership Board to deliver Internet Safety Awareness sessions to each of the North Yorkshire Local Area Groups.

Frits Rab and Sue Lear will be presenting the Internet Safety Packs to the North Yorkshire Provider Forum. People who attend this training will be required to cascade it to their work colleagues and to those they support.

The 'Be Safe Think Safe' packs will also be circulated to all day centres, in-house and external, and be made widely available to groups in the community.

The packs will also be placed on the North Yorkshire County Council Partnership Website and on the Northallerton and the Dales Mencap Website.
