

Advertisements

Selby is a market town and marketing signage is a significant feature of its character. Historic adverts can be seen on some properties – especially on upper floors – and modern ones also add to the commercial character. However, damaged, inappropriate, and overbearing ones can erode this character.

		Number
How many adverts can you see?
What can you see? Are there any you can see that are historical or interesting, or any that you think are inappropriate to the area's character? Record their location.
		Yes	No
Are there too many?
Are they in good repair?
What can you see? Are they obtrusive? For example, illumination, size, lettering?			