Pre-application enquiry advice: Guidance note

Introduction

We welcome and encourage pre-application discussions before the submission of a formal planning application and is committed to providing reliable pre-application advice as part of a positive and proactive planning service.

In order to meet the costs of providing this service, it is necessary to charge for most pre-planning application advice. This ensures that the cost of providing the service is recovered directly, and does not fall as a general cost to the council tax payer. The fee structure has been devised to reflect the scale and complexity of development proposed. Please refer to the service and fee schedule.

1. Benefits of pre-application advice

The process aims to take some of the uncertainty out of the planning application process and allow applicants to make more informed decisions when considering development proposals. The benefits can include:

- identifying the main issues and set out how we apply the planning policies that are most relevant to your proposal and any other material planning considerations;
- reviewing the relevant planning history of the site;
- identifying straightforward amendments that could be made to the proposal to improve the chances of getting planning permission;
- identifying at an early stage where there is a need for our specialist officer input; identifying external consultees you can approach separately for specialist advice which would be required at application stage;
- identifying any anticipated planning obligation or community infrastructure levy (CIL) requirements; information on this can be found within the Local Planning Guidance on the council's website;
- it may indicate that a proposal is completely unacceptable, saving you the cost of pursuing a formal application;
- it can ensure that you have the information to provide all the necessary material to enable an application to be registered as valid; information on this can also be found within the Local Validation Criteria on the Council's website.

13. Disclaimer

Pre-application advice is officer level advice given without prejudice to any formal decision the planning authority may make in dealing with a formal application for planning permission. It is not a formal decision by the council as local planning authority and cannot bind in any way the council’s final decision on any planning application. There may be issues raised through the formal planning application process which have not been considered at the pre-application stage and which may be material to any decision made. Additionally the planning policy context could change between the pre-application advice and submission of a formal planning application and this may affect the assessment of the proposal. The weight that can be given to pre-application advice will therefore decline over time.

If an application is subsequently submitted which fails to take on board advice given by officers, then the council may refuse it without further discussion with the applicant or their agent.
