

The following Notice is to inform the public that the landowner has submitted a legal document stating that they acknowledge the existence of those public rights of way across their land which are recorded on the Definitive Map, but that they do not intend to record any more public rights of way or intend their land to be registered as a Village Green.

Public rights of way which are already recorded on the Definitive Map are not affected by this Notice, however, if you believe that there are other public rights of way which have not been recorded you can contact us for advice.
