

EVIDENCE OF ELIGIBILITY TO WORK IN THE UK

Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Act 2006

Sections 15-25 of the Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Act 2006, which set out the law on the prevention of illegal migrant working, came into force on 29 February 2008.

It is a criminal offence for an employer to employ staff whose immigration status prevents them from working in this country. This means that, in order to comply with this Act, NYCC must ensure that all prospective employees and casual staff who are due to commence work on or after 29 February 2008 have the right to work in the UK before they commence employment.

In order that NYCC complies with the law, please bring along to your interview an original document showing that you are eligible to work in the UK. Remember the law states that we must photocopy an original document.

You are asked to provide an original document or combination of documents from EITHER List A (documents which establish an ongoing entitlement to work in the UK) OR List B (documents which indicate restrictions on entitlement to work in the UK), if you provide documents from List B, NYCC will check your continuing eligibility to work at least every twelve months or until the time-limited restriction expires or you are able to produce a document from List A.

Please note that if you are a UK National and do not have a current Passport in your current name and have had a name change from birth - you are required to provide documentation to prove these name changes in the documents that you produce for authenticity.
