

Joan Jackson

From: mwjointplan
Subject: FW: North Yorkshire Minerals Planning

From:
Sent: 06 July 2019 11:47
To: Carmel Edwards
Subject: North Yorkshire Minerals Planning

Please pass this comment on to Elizabeth Ord:

In the light of parliament declaring a 'Climate Emergency' and more and more councils following suit, in the current climate the only responsible plan is NOT to issue any more such licences or permits for oil and gas exploitations, or indeed any new bores on existing sites. Further, the only reasonable response under the current circumstances is to phase out, asap, whatever fossil fuels at present in production.

Virus-free. www.avq.com